welcome

You are at the beginning of a new chapter in your love story, and we are truly honoured that you are considering us to capture it.

For us, wedding photography is about more than beautiful images. It is about preserving the emotions, the atmosphere, and the small moments that make your day truly yours.

In this guide you will find our wedding collections and some helpful information about how we work and what you can expect from the experience.
Every wedding is different, so if your plans follow a different rhythm or you have something unique in mind, we are always happy to create a custom option that fits your day.

If you have any questions at all, just reach out, we would love to hear about your plans.

Patricia & Krzysztof

"The memories of your story"

Hi! We are Patricia & Krzys

We are photographers in love with the art of storytelling.
For us, wedding photography is not only about capturing moments, but about preserving the emotions and memories that make your story unique.

We document each wedding in a natural and heartfelt way, embracing both romanticism and authenticity while following the rhythm of your day.

Patricia brings a cinematic storytelling approach shaped by her background in cinema, while Krzysztof focuses on narrative portraiture, composition and elegant details.

Working as a duo allows us to offer a more complete experience, more creativity, more attention to detail, and a relaxed flow throughout the day.

Beyond photography, we find inspiration in art, cinema and nature, often wandering through forests with our dog and appreciating life's simple but meaningful moments.

our commitment:

To understand your journey and capture your story with care, honesty and intention.

Philosophy & Style

Every photographer has a unique way of seeing the world—that's what sets them apart. From how they capture light and color to their approach in post-production and storytelling, each vision is different.

Patricia is a deeply romantic soul, shaped by her cinematic background and inspired by the adventurous, nerdy movies of her childhood. Krzys, on the other hand, is captivated by elegance and harmony in composition, following the teachings of timeless photography legends. Together, we've developed a color grading style that adapts to each story, always evolving. We believe that every person is different, and every love story is truly unique.

We love capturing people as they are, and how they feel in the moment. We operate with transparency, honesty, and fairness in every part of our work. With us, you step into a safe space where you are guided in your best interest and encouraged to be yourself—without judgment.

The result:

Romantic, Natural, and Meaningful photography.

"We capture love as it truly is."
